Partners

Central Florida Sports Commission

The Central Florida Sports Commission is a non-profit, private organization created to attract international, national and regional events and sports-related business and activities to Central Florida. The Sports Commission is our community's clearinghouse and first point of contact for sports and sports-related activities and we are committed to developing and enhancing the region's sports brand.

The Central Florida Sports Commission is proud to serve six regional partners: the City of Orlando, and Lake, Orange, Osceola, Seminole and Volusia Counties.
